“Why Would A Christian Go Door To Door?”

Conceivably God has cautioned us to make full proof of our ministry (2 Tim 4:1-8) enriching our faith and growing into maturity. Pointedly, what God wants is not works but commitment through a cross. How many times has God put in the Christians heart to tell others about who we say we love? Our thoughts yearn when we receive the erg to share Him today with Family and others. Just being a fraction of the Major issue in Churches today is evangelism or the Church is dying because of the failed emphasis on the word “GO”. How about the Church that does fulfill the Great Commission of Jesus and goes into all of the World and does the work of an evangelist (2 Tim 4:5).

“After That You Shall Receive Power”

It is no mistake that Jesus chose us and not we who chose Him (John 15:15). Maybe an accident, quite abnormal. We didn't materialize from a hat trick but rather spoken into existence. God wants us to manifest His power for the advancement of the Gospel into places where non spiritual committed Saints would never tread. Apparently, many followers have to be loved into the capacity to give the kind of love that transmits genuineness through the cross. By showing humility we devastate the Power and plans of the central player of evil, the enemy.

“Jesus' Life Depends On Our Call”

What is our call today? Limitations in our belief will be generated by how deep we perceive the call God is calling us with. When we, as Jesus' bride, thinks Jesus doesn't see us as His bride we terribly under estimate the agenda God is operating on while planning this future event for Bride and Groom. To be sure, choose you this day whom we shall serve and give ourselves a chance to let Christ in.

“Did Jesus Die So That We Should Not Tell Others”

How ludicrous this statement is when lives are concerned. For now we see only a reflection in a mirror; then we shall see face to face (1 Cor 13:12). Our prevalent relationship with God is all he will unveil at this time but when we see him we will be like Him. Telling others about Christ is an occupation for life while we are on earth. Jesus says He loves us just the way we are with our faults. Why keep turning Him off for 5 minutes of fun. Invest in eternity.
