“TDN: Out Of The Mouth Of Babes”

It is with a profound love of our Spanish Bro/Sis that we make the time needed to show that we love them like God said to love them. Out of the mouth of babes who are responding to the accolades of inherited pressure in Religious America, we need to embrace this nation's poor with a vengeance. Only in America where fellowship is lacking the ability to overlook its faults and see it needs. Who can write this terrible wrong not solving the under privileged problem we've created in no uncertain shape form or fashion. Soon our Gods return will put the World on notice. Then a new thing in this world will demand its day in court. The issue of what Loves got to do with it (1 John 4:8). In this case everything.

“We Were Orphans Before We Met Christ”

Our sophisticated lives of luxury and lust eventually ran over the embankment of consideration for the orphans in the world. Our alienatedness from Christ caused our separation. Each person, before accepting Christ in our lives, was without the Fathers guidance from above we needed to have that extra boost we need daily. When we have found the Savior we can rest assure we have found the security we need to invoke who and what we are in Him. Finally, the breakthrough we needed.

“How Does Truth Look In A Bottle”

What are the hard cores of dimensions of how we see the truth about what is happening to this worlds poor today. Must we take a heart test concerning how many care for those who spend their lives each day wondering if they matter or not it is an interesting thing about truth that should amaze us but it doesn't? How is it that most of our lives can't matter to us more? That is to say, we spend most of our time living a lie instead of telling ourselves the truth about the life we say we live? We should spend more time talking to God.

“Can We Imagine The Thoughts Inside The Head Of An Orphan?”

Must Jesus bear the cross alone and all the world go free? When our question is indeed deliberating we need to know when Christ is talking to us as individuals. Now is the time for honesty in talking to God our strength and our redeemer. He has given us another chance to become the one who blesses others with our lives in obedience to the Lord. Orphan children can't began to feel the freedom Christ died to give everyone (John 10:10). Now we WIN!
